

February 25-27, 2008
 Hilton Kuching Hotel, Sarawak, Malaysia

*Subject to changes.
 For latest updates, visit the Conference Website:
www.stratfos.com/events/IMC2008*

Dr Richard Brown
 Senior Advisor, Government Records
 Library & Archives Canada
www.lac-bac.gc.ca

Dr Richard Brown has been an archivist at Library and Archives Canada for over 25 years, and he is currently Senior Advisor, Government Records. He was responsible for developing and coordinating the government records disposition programme at LAC, and for the past five years has been Director of the Government Archives responsible for the appraisal, acquisition and accessibility of the archival and historical records of the Government of Canada. Richard has published a number of articles and presented extensively both in Canada and abroad on recordkeeping, information management and archival science. By way of academic background, Richard has a PhD in history from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Paul Roberts
 Consultant
 Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada

Mr. Paul Roberts is a senior training, technical communications and change consultant, specializing in the rapid design and management of programs to support the 'upgrading' of end users. His educational and writing work spans over 20 years, and covers projects undertaken with the British Council in Asia, Africa, Europe and South America as well as Canada. The last ten years have seen Paul develop a specialization in the provision of information technology and information management training and change management services to Federal Government, Provincial Government /and/ private sector clients in Canada. He has a Masters degree in Applied Linguistics (Surrey University UK), a Post Graduate Certificate in Education (Bradford UK) and professional qualifications in Applied Information Technology and Information Management (University of Toronto).

Mark Smith
 President
 Bridgetown Consulting Inc. Canada
www.bridgetownconsulting.ca

Mr Mark Smith is the President of Bridgetown Consulting Inc., a consulting company providing IM services for the Canadian Government. Mark is also a Senior Functional/Technical IM/IT Leader with over eighteen years of professional experience in the IM/IT industry, fourteen of those with various Canadian Federal Departments. Mr. Smith has most recently been involved in document and records management initiatives, specifically RDIMS, the Canadian Government's Records Document and Information Management System. He has been developing tangible technical solutions to meet business requirements, Mr. Smith has a successful record of managing projects, meeting objectives, and delivering solutions on time, and within specified budgets.

Edan Puritt
 Vice President, ICT & Systems Automation
 AESI Acumen Engineered Solutions Intl. Inc. Canada
www.aesi-inc.com

Mr Edan Puritt has extensive experience as a professional project manager in e-Government with more than 20 years of supporting his clients. He has provided services across three broad categories: Technical, Organizational, and Educational. Clientele has included Canadian governmental departments, international non-governmental organizations (based in Canada, Southern Africa, South-east Asia, and the Middle East), trade unions and private/industry trade sector (Canada, Mexico and United States). His most recent focus was on developing e-Government enterprise solutions involving SAP, document management, business intelligence and Information Management.

Denise Going
 IM Consultant
 Denise Going Consulting Inc. Canada

Ms Denise Going has a background in Public Administration which includes a career within the Canadian Government and 15 years as a project manager in both public and private sector. A certified project management professional, Denise has a thorough knowledge of information management principles, understands the impact of technology on information management practices, and is able to identify opportunities for innovation. Denise has worked on the introduction of document management solutions and the renewal of organizations, policies and practices. Her knowledge in the field enables her to work as a change agent. From 2003 to 2006, Denise completed an executive exchange with the Canadian Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development, where she undertook the renewal of the Enterprise Information Management Program. She is here to outline the measures taken and the achievements that position the Department to transition to the electronic record.

February 25-27, 2008
Hilton Kuching Hotel, Sarawak, Malaysia

Subject to changes.
For latest updates, visit the Conference Website:
www.stratfos.com/events/IMC2008

Desmond Law
Records Management Implementation Manager, Asia Pacific
Sarawak Shell Berhad
http://www.shell.com/home/content/my-en/about_shell/smep/dir_smep.html

Mr Desmond Law is the regional Records Management (RM) Implementation Manager for Shell EP Malaysia responsible for the RM implementation in Asia Pacific region. Prior to joining Shell, Desmond worked in a few Information Technology firms in Malaysia implementing various business solutions specializing in workflow and document management, e-Procurement and e-Marketplace solutions. He is currently leading the implementation of records management solutions for Shell EP in Asia Pacific covering 6 countries.

Eric Thoo
Principal Research Analyst
Gartner
www.gartner.com

Eric Thoo researches data management and data integration and helps clients formulate insights for action. Before joining Gartner, Eric charted strategy for transforming business technology capabilities to evolve and step up to competitive challenges for performance. Eric was formerly Malaysia Airlines' head of group IT strategy and architecture and also held consulting role as senior manager/technical director at Arthur Andersen Business Consulting. He planned and implemented IT directions, road map realization and delivery of projects that enabled process integration, data management, collaboration, mobility and adoption of emerging business models.

John Wong
IT Planner, Information Planning
Information and Communication Technology Unit, Chief Minister's Department, Sarawak
www.ictu.sarawak.gov.my

Mr. John Wong is one of the IT Planners in the Planning and Implementation Section of the Information and Communication Technology Unit (ICTU), Chief Minister's Department. The Planning and Implementation Section is responsible for ICT strategic planning, technology planning, information planning, ICT budget, ICT projects/programs and ICT standards for the Sarawak State Public Service. John has been involved in the Sarawak Government's IM projects as a Taskforce member since 2004.

Mark McConnell
Asia Pacific Sales Executive for Data Services
IBM Asia Pacific
www.ibm.com/my/

Lee Chin Guan
Senior Manager
FujiXerox Malaysia
www.fujixerox.com.my

With more than 13 years of experience in Fuji Xerox Asia Pacific Pte Ltd, Lee Chin Guan's forte is in total document lifecycle management area, ranging from document capturing/handling, enterprise content management, document control & security, workflow/collaboration, to knowledge management enablers, etc. Currently handling Fuji Xerox's Solution & Services Marketing portfolio, Lee Chin Guan is also managing the development of Fuji Xerox's latest open office solution business area called "Apeos" that enabled seamless integration of people, technologies, and processes.

To date, he has conducted over 100 seminars and workshops on topics related to document technologies, business process optimization, utilization of office automation, ubiquitous workspace, knowledge sharing/management, etc.

February 25-27, 2008
Hilton Kuching Hotel, Sarawak, Malaysia

Subject to changes.
For latest updates, visit the Conference Website:
www.stratfos.com/events/IMC2008

Rashidah Haji Bolhassan
Chief Executive Officer
Sarawak State Library
www.pustaka-sarawak.com

Ms Rashidah Haji Bolhassan is the Chief Executive Officer of Sarawak State Library (Pustaka Negeri Sarawak). She has a Masters Degree in Library Science and obtained her Executive Masters in Business Administration from Ohio University. Rashidah was responsible for the successful coordination and implementation of the Sarawak State Library Project as an electronic and digital library. She is involved in the operations, services and collections of the library. Rashidah has contributed to the strategic planning of the library and direct involvement in statewide library development.

Judy Bauer
Professor, English
Algonquin College (Woodroffe Campus), Canada
www.algonquincollege.com

Judy is a professor of business communication at Algonquin College. She is passionate about using technology as a learning tool and dedicated to providing real learning opportunities for students and managing information in an efficient manner. Judy is also an experienced, early user of Blackboard (a learning management system which provides expansive opportunities for delivering learning opportunities online). She is eager to share her excitement of using technology in education to improve productivity and effectiveness.